

SC JOHNSON COLLEGE OF BUSINESS

Overview

The SC Johnson College of Business comprises the University's three exceptional accredited business schools: the Nolan School of Hotel Administration, the Dyson School of Applied Economics and Management, and the Samuel Curtis Johnson Graduate School of Management. The SC Johnson College of Business brings together the excellence and breadth of Cornell's leading undergraduate, graduate, and professional business programs to create a collaborative and comprehensive business management program, while preserving the individual excellence of the three schools. At the heart of our approach is our commitment to sustainability, ethics, and excellence that transcends traditional boundaries. We work to advance knowledge, work for the greater good, and empower the purposeful business leaders of tomorrow.

Students gain exposure to a wide array of faculty and learning opportunities across disciplines, through engagement at the Cornell Tech campus and in partnerships with institutions around the world. In an increasingly competitive global landscape, the SC Johnson College of Business establishes a world-class center of teaching and research for business management.
