

COLLEGE SCHOLAR PROGRAM (COLLS)

COLLS 3001 - College Scholar Seminar (3 Credits)

The seminar is an interdisciplinary research methods course that will teach College Scholar students methods for finding, evaluating, using, and presenting both qualitative and quantitative data. In addition to learning specific techniques, we will examine disciplinary differences in the way fields define subjects, design arguments, and ascertain truth. We will also develop skills for presenting complex ideas in written research proposals and oral presentations.

Enrollment Information: Enrollment limited to: College Scholar majors.
