

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

All Cornell students are required to learn their responsibilities under Cornell's Code of Academic Integrity (<https://theuniversityfaculty.cornell.edu/dean/academic-integrity/code-of-academic-integrity/>) and to behave with absolute integrity in all academic undertakings. Please make sure to familiarize yourself with the Code. Ask your instructor for guidance if you are uncertain about the use of technology, collaboration with others, or any aspect of the course operation.

Note two enrollment and grading impacts related to charges of Academic Integrity Code violations:

- A student who has been charged with violating the Code of Academic Integrity in a course may not drop that course without the express written permission of the course instructor(s) unless the student has been cleared of the charges.
- A student who has been charged with violating the Code of Academic Integrity in a course may not change the grading option for that course without the express written permission of the course instructor(s) unless the student has been cleared of the charges.
