

DANCE MINOR

College of Arts and Sciences

Program Website (https://as.cornell.edu/major_minor_gradfield/dance/)

Program Description

The Dance Minor is designed to be flexible yet ensure that students grapple with the fundamental practices of doing, making, and thinking dance. Included in the curriculum are courses that explore choreographing dance and studying dance as a historical and cultural behavior, as well as more familiar dance technique courses.

Department of Performing and Media Arts Minors

The Department of Performing and Media Arts offers four minors. In addition, the Department administers the interdisciplinary Media Studies minor. The minors are open to all undergraduate students in the university, including those outside the College of Arts and Sciences, and require at least 15 credits per minor. To declare a minor, you will need to contact pma-dus@cornell.edu. All credit toward the minor must be from PMA courses taken at Cornell or from PMA courses taken with Cornell approved programs. Independent Study courses do not count toward any PMA minor.

Guidelines for Minors

- Fulfill the requirements for the desired minor listed below.
- Pass all courses with a letter grade of C or higher.
- No S-U grades are accepted unless there is no letter grade option.
- First-year Writing Seminars do not count for the minor.
- All courses must be taken for 3-credits or more, except in the case of the Production Labs, and a total of at least 15-credits are required.
- Cross listed courses not taught or co-taught by PMA faculty will not count as credit for any PMA Minor. Courses taken through Study Abroad programs, other than those directly affiliated with Cornell (such as Cornell-in-Rome), cannot be used toward the minor.
- Minor must be declared before week three of the final semester of enrollment at Cornell. Students should declare as early as possible to gain the appropriate advising to fulfill the minor.
- Credits earned from Production Labs can only be used to fulfill the Production Lab requirement.
