

FRENCH STUDIES MINOR

College of Arts and Sciences

Program Website (https://as.cornell.edu/major_minor_gradfield/french/)

Program Description

The French minor is designed to give students pursuing other majors the opportunity to engage with and reflect upon Francophone literary, philosophical, and visual culture. Students may declare the minor at any time. Students wishing to enroll in the minor must register their intent by contacting the Director of Undergraduate Studies.

Minor Requirements

The minor then consists of five courses (minimum 3 credits each) on French or Francophone topics, which in the Department of Romance Studies must be taken at the FREN 2095 French Intermediate Composition and Conversation II-level and higher. Students may apply up to two courses from abroad or from another institution toward a French minor. Two of these courses may be in English; the minimum grade is B-.
